KPFK FOLIO

REPORT TO THE LISTENER

Tarabu Betserai

It is with great delight that I announce the very successful results of KPFK's Winter Fund Drive which proved to be the most successful drive in the station's history. We exceeded our goal of $150,000 and raised a walloping total of $154,629 in 14 days, and an incredible $22,000 on the last day of the drive. It was a tremendous shot in the arm for everyone involved and many thanks go out to all of our listeners new and old who supported us so generously. Also a direct mail effort initiated in December has netted $20,000, so 1987 has gotten off to a very successful start. To date we have received returns on 50% of the pledges which is another good sign and we would encourage you if you haven't made your payment yet to please send that check in to us as soon as possible. Once again I would like to thank KPFK's audience for a great start.

The National Board Meetings announced in last month's article were hosted by KPFK and some of the highlights included the election of David Salniker as the new Executive Director of the Pacifica Foundation. David will take over the post immediately after serving six years as station manager of KPFA in Berkeley. Also John Simmon announced his resignation as station manager of WBAI in New York, so the foundation will be conducting two new manager searches in the coming months to fill the vacancies left by these two individuals. David's election as Executive Director is a strong and positive step for the foundation and he has the unanimous support of the national board and all the unit managers within the system. Secondly the foundation allocated money for each unit to cover the Iran-Contra hearings and for the Pacifica Radio News Service to provide daily half-hour summaries on the events of the day once the hearings begin. Also three days of preworkshops were held for subscriptions personnel and program directors from all five stations. This was a first time experiment at this national board meeting that yielded some productive and engaging dialogue. It was a good week at KPFK for everyone involved.

March is another big month at the station as we celebrate International Women's Day. KPFK will be presenting programming by and about women throughout the month. Check the grayed areas for all of the specials that relate to International Women's Month.

March also represents the re-institution of KPFK's Annual Gospel Festival at the LA Trade-Tech College Theater on March 20th at 8:00 p.m. The Trade-Tech College is located on 400 W. Washington Blvd., Los Angeles. A great event of the past has been brought back to life and we are inviting all of you to attend this very special fundraiser for KPFK. Tickets are $8.50 in advance and $10 at the door and can be purchased by calling KPFK's switchboard. We expect a rousing, spirited, full house for the evening so get your tickets in advance.

9:00 ST. PATRICK'S DAY 1987—(From 9 a.m. till Midnight) in 1982 Mano Casetta returned from a two-week music collecting tour of Ireland. Unwilling to spread himself too thin he visited Galway and Sligo in the West (with a side tour of Aran Islands) and then crossed the island republic to Dublin. Working with a Revox A77 Mario over a period of many months, the material consisting of taped interviews, records, field recordings etc. was toned down to 19 hours and finally emerged in produced documentary form as "The Crooked Road to Dublin."
Fourteen hours of the cream of this incredible radio document will be rebroadcast today. St. Patrick's Day—1987 from 9 a.m. to 12 midnight (with only one interruption for the Special News Hour from 11 to 11:30 a.m.).
"The Crooked Road to Dublin" documents folk musicians in pubs and ceili (kay-lee) sessions, film music, religious music, street music of Dublin, the work of some of Ireland's most exciting contemporary folk groups. Special attention is given to the work of the late Sean O Riada, to Tommy Makem and Liam Clancy and to Paddy Maloney of the Chieftains.
Mario recorded John Kelly and Tommy Potts, living legends in Ireland, at the Four Seasons public house. There are also extensive remarks from Bernard Harris of Gael-Linn Records with a rich sampling of that label's catalog. Many important Irish music record labels are represented including Blackbird and Banshee in Dublin and Shanachie and Green Linet in the U.S.A. An unusual highlight is a visit to a provincial pirate radio station in Sligo. There are also some songs which were recorded some years ago by folklorist Alan Lomax.
